At Key Stage 4 All candidates will be entitled, and enabled, to achieve an entry for qualifications from an external awarding body.

6. The Disability Discrimination Act (DDA), Special Needs and Access Arrangements

6.1 DDA

The Disability Discrimination Act 2005 extends the application of the DDA to general qualifications. All exam centre staff must ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

6.2 Special Needs

A candidate's special needs requirements are determined by the SENCO and educational psychologist / specialist teacher. The SENCO will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam, and the date of that exam. The SENCO can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates can be granted during the course and in the exam.

6.3 Access Arrangements

Making special arrangements for candidates to take exams is the responsibility of the exams officer. Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the Exams Officer. The SENCO will inform the Exams Officer of any pupils in need of Access Arrangements by Autumn half-term. Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the Exams Officer. Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates will be organised by the Exams Officer with the SENCO.

7. Estimated Grades

Estimated Grades - The heads of department will submit estimated grades to the exams officer when requested by the exams officer.

8. Managing invigilators and exam days

8.1 Managing invigilators

External invigilators will be used for internal exams and external exams. The recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the exams office and head of Centre. Securing the necessary Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the centre administration. CRB fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre. Invigilators are timetabled and briefed by the exams office. Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the centre administration.

8.2 Exam days

The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator. The exams officer and SLT member are responsible for setting up the allocated rooms. The exams officer will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject teachers will not enter the exam block during their examination. Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of an exam session. Papers will be distributed to heads of department at the end of the exam season.

9. Candidates, clash candidates and special consideration

9.1 Candidates

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times. Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage. Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines. Candidates may leave the exam room for a genuine purpose requiring an immediate return to the exam room, in which case an invigilator or the exams officer must accompany them. The exams officer will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

9.2 Clash candidates

The exams officer will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

9.3 Special consideration

Should a candidate be ill before an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be taken ill during the exam itself or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, the exams officer, or the exam invigilator, to that effect. The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within three days of the exam, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor. The exams officer will then forward a completed special consideration form to the relevant awarding body within seven days of the exam.

10. Controlled Assessments and appeals against internal assessments

10.1 Controlled Assessments

Candidates who have to prepare coursework should do so by the end of the course. Heads of department will ensure all assessments are ready for despatch at the correct time. The exams officer will keep a record of what has been sent when and to whom. Marks for all internally assessed work and estimated grades are provided to the exams office by the heads of department.

10.2 Appeals against internal assessments

The centre is obliged to publish a separate procedure on this subject, which is available from the exams office.

The main points are:

- Appeals will only be entertained if they apply to the process leading to an assessment. There is no appeal against the mark or grade awarded.
- Candidates may appeal if they feel their coursework has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
- Appeals should be made in writing by 30 June to the head of centre (or other nominee) who will decide whether the process used conformed to the necessary requirements

□ The head of centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the exams officer and recorded for awarding body inspection.

11. Results, enquiries about results (EARs) and access to scripts (ATS)

11.1 Results

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days either in person at the centre or by post to their home addresses. Arrangements for the school to be open on results days are made by the Head of Centre. The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the Head of Centre.

11.2 EARs

EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. If a result is queried, the exams officer, teaching staff and head of centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a re-mark at the centre's expense. When the centre does not uphold an EAR, a candidate may apply to have an enquiry carried out. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will be charged.

11.3 ATS

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of papers within three days' scrutiny of the results. Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained. GCSE re-marks cannot be applied for once a script has been returned.

12. Certificates

Certificates are presented in person or posted (recorded delivery). Certificates may not be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party. Replacement certificates are only issued if a candidate agrees to pay the costs incurred. The centre retains certificates for five years.
